WAT WALK Thursday May 17th

Meet at the Chequers in Streatley at 10:30am for an easy three and a half mile walk in the Chiltern Hills. The walk, led by Jonathan Fox, passes through wildflower meadows managed by the National Trust at Sharpenhoe Clappers with extensive views. Streatley is a village off the A6 at Barton le Clay bypass, north of Luton. This is a dual carriageway, so drivers need to be in the right hand lane at the top of the hill to turn right at the roundabout to Streatley. At the T junction in Streatley, you will see the Chequers straight ahead, the post code is LU3 3PS. the Chequers' menu can be viewed on line @ www.thechequersstreatley.com. All are welcome to go back to Barton le Clay after lunch for a cuppa and chat with Jane and Jonathan. Please ring Pam on 01234 721156 if you would like to come on the walk. All are welcome on our walks, lunches are optional and lifts can be arranged. If you would like to lead a walk (leaders urgently needed for June and July) please ring Pam on the above number.
